URBAN STUDIES

The prime object of URBAN STUDIES, first published in 1964, is to provide for social and economic contributions dealing with urban matters and with regional planning. There is a clear need for this when town planning is increasingly concerned with social and economic problems and regional plans are receiving increasing attention. Articles outside sciences are included so long as they deal with aspects of urban studies which are relevant to an understanding of the structure, growth and life of towns, or contribute to a greater understanding of regional planning. Other contents include reviews of books, notes and lists of recent publications. It is issued three times a year in February, June and November.
